When about 500 feet into the working, Drennan was overcome by after damp, and had it not been for his two companions, would have perished. On being removed to the outer air, he recovered and gave instructions to the reacuing party to commence repairing the overcasts. The overcasts are the pipes which circulate the air through the mine, and they had been almost completely destroyed, rendering it impossible to enter, owing to the after damp which prevailed.

Tactful Response to a Toast in His Honor.

Calls Attention to France's Services in Making This Country Free.

IBY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M. ANNAPOLIS (Md.) May 23.—The luncheon given today on board the French battleship Gaulois, in honor of President Roosevelt, was one of the most memorable incidents of the visit of the distinguished French soldiers of the distinguished French soldiers and sailors to this country, who are here to join in the unveiling of the monument to the memory of Gen. I.ochambeau, which will take place in Washington tomorrow.

The members of the French and American commissions arrived from Washington an hour in advance of the Presidential train. They were met at the station, escorted to the Gloucester and Standish, and conveyed to the French battleship, lying in Annapolis roads. Gov. Smith of Maryland joined the commissioners and guests at the wharf.

The President and his party of American officials arrived at 11:30 of lock. They were driven to the Navai Academy, through a double line of marines and national guardsmen; thence to the wharf reviewiewing. thence to the wharf, reviewing the battalion of cadets en route, and boarded the dispatch boat Dolphin.

LUNCHEON ON FLAGSHIP.

As the Dolphin approached the anchorage ground of the Gaulois, and the American escorting squadron, the Olympia, Albany, Kearsarge, a Presidential salute was fired. As the Presidential salute was fired As the President came aboard the Gaulois, accompanied by his daughter and Secretaries Moody and Root, he was met by Ambassador Cambon, Gen. Brugere and Admiral Fornier, and escorted to the cabin of the officers. Here a general handshaking, congratulations and preliminary refreshment ensued. Then followed the luncheon tendered to the President by the French Ambassador. The banquet hall had been improvised upon the ample after deck of the Gaulois. The President occupied the middle seat at the head of the table.

pied the middle seat at the head of the table.

The chief guest of honor next to the President was Gov. John Walter Smith of Maryland, who was assigned a seat, near the Chief Magistrate. Admiral Dewey sat next to Gov. Smith. Immediately opposite the President was Mmc. Cambon, wife of the French Ambassador; upon his right, Mrs. Root, wife of the Secretary of War, and upon his left Mrs. Lodge, wife of the Massachusetts Senator. Next to Mrs. Lodge was Gen. Brugere, commander of the French armies, and to the left of Mrs. Lodge was Admiral Fourier, Inspector-General of the French Navy.

After the delicacles of the menu had been eaten, Ambassador Cambon arose, and in the name of President Loubet of the French republic bade a hearty welcome to all who were present. He was especially complimentary in his allusions to the Presidenf, in whose hands, he said, the precious liberties of the American people were safe. He concluded by offering a toast to the President of the United States.

the valor of the soldiers and sailors of France exerted, according to the judgment of historians, the determining influence that made this country, a free and independent country, and because of that, France must always occups cherished place in our hearts.

"Mr. Ambassador, I thank your personally for the courtesy which has been extended to me. It has been a source of valued information to be permitted to see and inspect this splendid French vessel, and I have been duly impressed by its superior mechanism and the superior physique and discipline of your men. France exerted, ac superior physique and discipline of your men.

"I am sure I speak for the American navy when I say it has been a source of pleasure that such a splendid specimen of French naval architecture as the Gaulois has visited our shores on such a friendly mission, and in its name I thank you. Let me, on behalf of all the people of the United States, and with the certain conviction that I have expressed their sentiments, drink to the health of President Loubet, and to the continued prosperity of the mighty nation of which he is President."

TOAST TWO PATRIOTS.

TOAST TWO PATRIOTS. Gen. Brugere followed with a felicitous speech, concluding with a toast to the memories of Rochambeau and to the memories of Rochambeau and Washington, which was drunk standing, as were all the toasts.

Secretary of War Root delivered a brief but happy address, in conclusion offering the toast: "I drink to the army of France, ever faithful and gentle in friendship; ever fearless and gallant in war."

Immediately thereafter, another launch containing Gen. Miles. Gov. Smith. Minister to France Porter. Gen. Corbin and others left for the Standish, which was to take them to the Annapolis wharf. As the Standish steamed away, the Gaulois fired a salute in honor of Gov. Smith and Gen. Miles.

The President left Annapolis on the 4:30 o'clock train for Washington.

If Entire Year's Interest and Sinking Fund Allowance for New Serial Debentures Were Charged Against Surplus Earnings Would Still Net Seven Per Cent.

[BT DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
NEW YORK, May 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "The Atchison's surplus over preferred dividends," says Thomas F. preferred dividency, says Indiana Vocalities, and after payment of accruing interest and sinking funds on new serial debentures, will apparently approximate about $8,700,000, so that it is fair to say that Atchison this year ought to show earnings of about 8½ per cent. on its common stock, at least. If the entire year's interest were charged on serial debentures, and the entire year's proportion of sinking funds as well, the company would still be able to show earnings of 7 per cent. on its common stock, without having had the benefit accruing from the ex-penditure of money raised by serial debentures. The full benefits of those expenditures will not be felt until the beginning of the fiscal year 1902-03, and perhaps not entirely then."

The Board of Trade has taken up the matter, and a mass meeting will be called. The construction of the link from Phoenix to Benson connecting with the Phelps-Dodge system will give Phoenix a trunk line to El Paso.

ESPEE EARNINGS.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-A.M. SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—The Southern Pacific Company has issued a financial statement showing that the gross earnings for the nine months ending March 21 were $83,425,970, and the operating expenses and taxes for the same period were $41,887.559, leaving net earnings of $21,548,411. Income from other sources amounted to $858.733, making a total income of $22,407.137. During the nine months $12,154.770 was disbursed for fixed charges and $8,-033,359 was expended for betterments. 23,389 was expended for bett eaving a surplus of $2,218,984.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.I NEW YORK, May 23.—In a wild chase after burgiars through Harlem streets early today fifty or sixty shots were fired. One burglar, Walter were fired. One burgiar, Walter White, was shot in the temple and killed instantly. The robbers, three in number, were discovered leaving the store of an optician at 2083 Third avenue, by a watchman. He followed them until he found a policeman. Then the pursuit was on and the robbers began shooting. The officer returned the fire.

A few blocks further along one of the burgiars fell. By this time ten policemen had joined in the chase, and a constant fire was kept up on the two remaining robbers, who apparently had exhausted their ammunition. At Fifth avenue they were surrounded, and after being clubbed and beaten they surrendered.

Several bundles of valuables which they had stolen were found in the treat where the hurgiars had decreae they had stolen were found in the them.

None of the policemen was injured in the fight.

KINGMAN (Aris.) May 23.—On the afternoon of the 21st, a Supai Indian boy, who had been sent on business to the Truxton Indian school, was found dead at the Hilltop House, eight miles from Supai village. The boy had evidently been murdered, but by whom, or for what reason, cannot be learned. All the Supai Indians are excited, and are making threats against the school authorities. The agent at Truxton has been wired for, and leaves in the morning with officers for the protection of the school and teachers.

It is feared that the Indians will commit some overt act before the agent arrives. The Supais have never taken kindly to the establishment of the school in the Supai Cafon, and may make the murder of the boy an excuse for killing all the whites in that vicinity.

MADERA, May 22.—W. M. Conley, Superior Court judge, who has been making a hard fight for the Democratic nomination for Congressman from this district, today announced that he had withdrawn from the race, and explained his action in a statement that many friends had requested him to serve out his term as Superior Judge of the county.

John M. Griffin has also withdrawn.
He gave no reason for his action.
The announcements have caused some surprise here.

Deputy Sheriffs Gibson and Siankard of this county. He confesses to the killing of Blas Gillan in his bed Sunday night, six miles from Buckeye, and says his reason for doing so was that Gillan had stolen his wife.
No resistance was made to the officers at the time of the capture. The murderer bore a good reputation in Congress.

Information as to what occurred at today's meeting of the Cabinet is closely guarded, but it is not likely that the Cabinet transactions were of vital import.

The delegates at Vereeniging, according to information in possession of the War Office, are fairly evenly divided. Consequently extreme precautions are exerted both in London and Pretoria to prevent any premature action or report which might adversely influence the burghers. The most pessimistic forecast heard tonight only admits that a few isolated bands of irreconcilables may be left in the field.

A member of the House of Commons, who is in close touch with the government, said to a representative of the Associated Press that be believed everything was settled, and that the British terms would be found unexpectedly liberal.

The appearance of Mr. Brodrick, the Secretary of State for War at the volunteer service dinner tonight was watched eagerly in the hope of gaining an inkling of the government's private frame of mind. But Mr. Brodrick's listeners had to be content with one brief and adroitly turned reference to the toast "The imperial forces," the War Secretary said:

"I would go beyond my duty should I enter into details of the communications which are now pending, and which precede as we all hope, the surrender of the Boers."

Mr. Brodrick then proceeded to referate the off-declared intention of the government not to be drawn into any compromise which would jeopardize future peace in South Africa.

Mr. Spooner said it was of the utmost consequence that there should be the greatest harmony between the two branches of Congress, but it was just as necessary that there should be full and free conferences. He thought the procedure of the House was inadmissible, and if the Senate acquiesced now in the proposition made, there would be no end of the trouble which would arise.

Mr. Foraker suggested that the Senate merely insist on its amendments and thus send the bill back to the House.

Mr. Hoar moved that the House had been exceedingly disrespectful, the Senate did not desire to be disrespectful to the House.

Mr. Hoar moved that the Senate insist upon its amendments, and that it ask the House for a free conference.

Mr. Pettus of Alabama thought the best mode of procedure would be to appoint a committee of the Senate to try to smooth out the differences.

Mr. Allison agreed with Mr. Pettus, and said if Mr. Hoar's motion were adopted it might complicate the difficulty rather than reduce it. He believed the better plan would be to agree to the conference asked and let the protest against the instructions already made stand as a notice to the House of the Senate's feelings.

Mr. Teller insisted that the real point at issue was the right of the Senate's feelings.

8AN PRANCISCO, May 21.—The SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—The Oakland baseball team resumed its winning galt today, making six runs to only one for the Sacramentos. Oakland made nine hits from Doyle's delivery, and but one of them was wasted, the others being dropped in at a time when they did the most good. On the other hand the visitors from up the valley garnered a total of eight safeties, and scored only a single run, partly because of a distressing slowness on the bases, and also on account of a lack of concerted hits.

Charlie Doyle twirled his fifth game of the season, and was charged up with his defeat. His support was not anything to brag shout, although the score shows but one misplay marked up against it.

Sacramento saved a shut-out in the fifth on safe hits by Unglaub, Hogan and Bone. Score.

YOUNG CORBETT GETS DECISION OVER KID BROAD.

Cleveland Boy Had the Champion Groggy in the Ninth, but the Denver Lad Quickly Recovered and Finished

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M. DENVER (Colo.) May 23.—William H. Rothwell, better known to the sporting world as "Young Corbett," gained the decision over Kid Broad of Cleveland, O., at the end of a fast and develand, O., at the end of a rast and furious ten-round fight. Broad put up a very good fight, and in the ninth round had Corbett groggy, but the Denver lad came back strong, and finished the round freem. At no time was there any time lost, both men being willing to lead and force the fighting whenever necessary nair the gross receipts, to per cent, of which goes to the winner and 25 per cent, to the loser, and the feather-weight championship of the world. The fight was scheduled as a tenround go.

The first fight between these men was on March 22, 1901, when Broad scored a clean knock-out in the fourth round. On July 26, 1901, "Young Corbett," gained the decision over Broad in a ten-round fight, showing a decided superiority. On both these occasions the principals claimed they had not been in first-class shape. Tonight, however, they said they were in fine fettle, and were confident of winning. Both men fight in much the same style, and are always anxious to mix up at close range. They weighed in at 12s pounds at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The betting was 2 to 1 on Corbett. After the fight there was an altercation among several members of the audience, who were dissatisfied with the decision. Several men landed blows on each other, and for a moment it looked like a small-sized riot in the main aisle. The police quickly separated the belligerents. No arrests were made.

HOW THE TIMES TREATS LABOR.

THE LOS ANGELES TIMES pays to its skilled workmen wages that average from $3.75 to $4.50 per day for time work, and from $4 to $5.50 per day for piece work. These rates are higher than are paid by any competing Sewspaper. The Times pays larger sums weekly, monthly and yearly for labor than any journal in all the Southwest. Its cash disbursements on this unt between August, 1800, and the end of September, 1901, aggregated $1,007,020.81, and its annual expenditures for labor of all classes, both skilled skilled, now average more than $175,000 per year. There never has been any attempt, in any quarter, to deny these specific and telling facts, and the proprietors challenge such denial if made. The Times has a more skillful, reliable and satisfactory force of workmen than any rival newspaper establishment; and not for years has it had any trouble with its workmen, who are independent of unions, loyal to their employers and to themselves, well satisfied and prosperous. The Times controls its own business in its own way, subject only to the laws of the land; and no interference with that control can be lawfully or justly made. The result of its fixed policy has proven highly beneficial to all concerned, and the justness and correctness of its course have for years past received public approval in most marked and conspicuous ways, the circulation and advertising patronage of the paper steadily and largely outstripping that of all local rivals. As is well known, I have for years protested strongly against the use of any and all antiseptics, artificial colorings or decolorants in food products. To be placed in the light of advising such a procedure in the case of olives seems quite anomalous. I have been more than sneered at for my opposition to the excessive sulphuring of fruits, so commonly practiced in this State to render them unnaturally and ghastly white in color, when they should be of a natural brownish tin, retaining the flavor, which is destroyed by the sulphuring. In sheer weariness of the bootless conflict I have remained silent on this topic for a number of years, but in the meantime nearly all European governments have passed laws excluding such fruit from shipment. Our own citizens have justified their action by the statement that they could not sell their product unless it was so bleached; but few among them were willing to put such over-sulphured fruit on their own tables.

For the last three years I have been frequently asked to give some prescription by which ripe pickied olives could be made to retain the black tint they have on the tree; but no mode of procedure compatible with proper curing was found to accomplish this. Moreover, some of the best varieties for pickling, e.g., the Mantanillo, have a very light color at best, and cannot be pickled so as to have any but a light "olive" tint. Until this year I have always replied to such inquirers that the public demand for black cloves is a mere fad, and I have in public and in private urged both producers and dealers to discountenance it, and refuse to handle the artificially colored, deep

And by all means, let them refuse to handle any fruit not approved by the Board of Health, and let that board do its full duty, not only with regard to colored and decolored fruit, but siso in the matter of the antiseptics so commonly and excessively put in conserves and fellies, so widely used as delicacies to be given to patients. Whenever it can be truthfully said that California fruit products are exempt from all such adulterations, it will increase enormously the market demand for them.

"Los Angeles Times Makes a Record."

[From the National Advertiser, a journal devoted to the science of advertising.] The growth of Los Angeles, Cal. is regarded with wonder by many who have watched its progress. It is remarkable in many ways, but in no way se much as in the steady, consistent, onward progress in material prosperity. Its newspapers to a great extent emphasize the advance the city is making. Take the Los Angeles Sunday Times for Sunday, April 27, for instance, and one can form some idea of the enterprise, energy and goaheadativeness by merely glancing over its columns. The double-page advertisement of the greatest store in Southern California, [A. The Los Angeles Sunday Times has made a record in advertising displays which other enterprising newspapers will find difficult to reach.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Friday Morning Club.

Two addresses constituted yesterday's programme at the Friday Morning Club. Mrs. Mary Austin spoke on "The Poetry of Children," Dr. Dorothea Moore on a story by Alice Brown, under the title, "A Remarkable Short Story."

Mrs. Austin began with the statement that children take naturally to poetry; that is, to poetry of certain sorts. In them is found the sense of rhythm that abounds elsewhere in nature—that manifests itself in the dances of many birds at mating time, in the drumming of partridges, and in the drumming of the must be supposed of risk and often of themselves add or take away a syllable from a line that is defective in rhythm. They frequently, too, originate rhymes, as they originate gannes.

"The child's poetry," continued Mrs. Austin, "is what Taine calls the poetry of primitive man, a natural explosion of emotion." The speaker also referred indefinitely to a theory of the origin of language, which, by description, would seem to be that of Max Muller, commonly called the "Diugdong theory," according to which language is in the beginning the natural, involuntary response—a reverberation—of the mind to the feelings and thoughts which surge through it. "The child," said the speaker, "like the savage, makes poetry for himself, as the natural expression of what he feels, without any consideration whether or not be can get it into the leading magazines. The poetry of Wait Whitman has much of this primitive character, and I think, if you would study savage verse, you would understand him better. I never really understood him until I once

THE CONNECTION.

Barnabas and Saul were on the island of Cyprus, on their first missionary journey. From there they crossed over to the mainland, due north. Several things are to be noted. Mark left them and went back home. Whatever his reason, it gave Paul an unfavorable opinion of him, which it took years to remove. It might have been fear of persecution, or of robbers, or of swollen streams, as they went from the seashore up the mountain gorges, or, of the intense heat of the marshy lowlands, and the terrible spells of mainria that it produces. It might have been dissatisfaction with Paul's plan in passing by Persa, the town down near the coast, and hastening on up into the mountains. It might have been jealousy that Paul was becoming the dominant spirit, instead of his uncie, Barnabas. It might have been homesickness.

It was at this time also, that the Hebrew name Saul was changed to the Roman name Paul, for his mission was to be to the Gentiles.

It was here that the story began to speak of Paul and Barnabass, instead of the way the Gentiles received the gos-tiles. I.

Reports of officers of the institution show that it is in a flourishing condition and that this has prevalled throughout the year. It cares for 140 orphans, 110 of whom are attending the age from 7 to 13, have received instruction in the sewing school and good work has been done in the sloyd and

The meeting was concluded with a programme of songs and music by the orphans, who looked healthy and happy and regarded the many finely-dressed women solemnly.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

By William T. It is.

sided at games, and were loaded with honors. Even the Jewish women claimed more attention than elsewhere. An inscription gives the title, "ruler of the synagogue," to a Jewess.—[W. T. Smith.

It is a desperate situation which justifies us in giving up a man or a crowd for lost. Sometimes it has to be done. Sometimes there is nothing to do but shake off the dust of your feet against them. But it is the last resort. Don't give up those unruly boys until your nerves are clean gone. Hang on to them through thek and hist. I don't believe any one ever "shook the dust of his feet" off on a Sunday-school class, who didn't live to regret it.—[Goss.

(1.) That the preaching of the gospel with earnestness always does some ly strik earnestness always does some the foe of the largest effectiveness of Christianity to lift and enlarge a man's life and vision, there are still the analysis of the tendency of Christianity to lift and enlarge a man's life and vision, there are still any small saints, whose outlook is narrow and whose interests are restricted. Such as these are not able to plan or execute a world-wide campain for the church. Fight here, the church boards offer their largeness to constituted as to have a world vision. Wise are we if we have the confidence and the wisdom to link our missionary powers, however limited they may be, with the boards which are our representatives to do the work which we cannot do in person.

He would not leave the hotel during the daytime because he said the police were looking for him. He would not tell what he was wanted for, but at sight of a policeman, he would run to his room and hide. Yesterday morning, after finishing his work, he went to his room, and standing before a mirror, drew a Prasor across his neck with such force that the windple and all the larger blood vessels were severed. He was barely alive when found, but died before the patrol wagon could reach the place. The body was taken to Garrett's morgue, where an inquest will be held today. Coroner's Jury Declares That Deatl Was Due to Negligence on Part of Street Railway Employee.

The Coroner held an inquest yester-day at Booth & Boylson's undertaking day at Booth & Boylson's undertaking establishment on the body of José Maria Coronado, the old man who was killed Thursday night near the Planaby being run down by an electric car of the Los Angeles Railway Company. A number of witnesses were examined, among them being C. O. Ledford, the motorman of the car which caused the old man's death. Ledford testified that the car was running at a very low rate of speed. The following verdict was rendered by the jury:

following verdict was rendered by the jury:

"We find that the deceased, José-Maria Coronado, came to his death by being struck by a car of the Los Angeles Railway Company, and we further find that the motorman on that car was negligent in not stopping the car, when, according to his own statement, it was running at a very low rate of speed."

Coronado was 66 years of age, and resided at No. 600%, New High street. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock, and the interment will be in the New Calvary Cemetery. The deceased leaves a son and three daughters.

Mind Render Women All-Powerful. Health, However, the Greatest Charm.

Perfection of Form, Feature, and Woman's greatest gift is the power to inspire admiration, respect, and love. There is a beauty in health which is more attractive to men than mere regularity of features.

The snap and spirit which health gives to the eye, the movement, and the speech are full of magnetism. Sickly women can't understand this.

They only know that they are miserable, and their efforts to be attractive are languid and weak. Woman's influence in the world is limited by her strength, and the strength of health is real strength. It brings with it beauty and grace and loveliness of disposition. To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study. If she would be all she may, she must guard well against the signs of ill health.

Regular and painless menstruation is absolutely necessary. The help which Lydis E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound gives to women who are attacked by any disorder of the feminine organism is real, permanent help. It cures all weaknesses of the organs and makes it possible for women to retain their health and beauty to maturity.

it possible for women to retain their health and beauty to maturity.

Mrs. Pinkham advises women who are ill free of cost. Address her at Lynn, Mass. Thousands owe their health to her.

"DRAM MRS. PINGHAM:—I feel very grateful to you for the benefit I derived from your kind advice and remedies. I was troubled with a complication of female troubles, had ovaritis, painful and irregular menstruation, leucorrhosa, nervousness and weakness. I had no appetite and could not sleep nights. The least exertion would cause shortness of breath and dull pains in my hips and side. The doctors all advised me to have an operation and have one of my ovaries removed, but this I could not bear to think of. I was induced to try Lydis E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and after taking the first bottle I was much improved. It renewed my appetite, health and strength. I continued taking it, also your Blood Purifier and Sanative Wash until entirely cured of all my troubles. The pains have never returned and my health is splendid. Your remedies have been a boon to me and I am sure many a woman owes her life to them."—Marie Webb, 356 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass. (March 15, 1901)

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread.

operation July 1.

When the franchise was obtained from the city over a year ago property owners along Jefferson street came forward and offered a $3000 bonus to the company provided that the road was ouilt by July 1, this year.

Manager W. S. Hook yesterday said, regarding the plans of the company: "Although there is nothing definite to state, it is our intention to have cars running down Jefferson street not much later than July 1. We do not expect to forfeit the bonus in case the road is not ready by that time."

The new line will provide transportation facilities for a part of the city that has hitherto been left out in the cold, so far as the street railways are concerned. That section has been growing so rapidly in the past year, however, that a street-car line has become a positive necessity.

In addition to this an eight-inch water main is being laid along Jefferson street, and with these two improvements the extreme western portion of the city bids fair to advance at a pace in keeping with other sections.

A creditors' petition in bankruptcy was filed here yesterday in the United States District Court by Laventhal Brothers, Christy and Wise Commission Company and Carroll & Carroll, all of San Francisco, against E. F. Glass and W. A. Watson of Fresno, liquor merchants. The petitioners allege that they have claims against the defendants to the amount of $500 in excess of assets held by them, and claim that the defendants committed an act of bankruptcy on April 18 by transferring their property with intent to hinder, delay and defraud their creditors, and particularly the petitioners. They transferred part of their property to two creditors, with intent, it is declared, to prefer them over the others. The petition prays that the Fresno firms be declared bankrupt, that all may be satisfied alike.

The mystery surrounding the cause of the death of Mme. Mary Lormano is still unsolved. Yesterday afternoon many sorrowing friends called at the family residence, to view the remains of the departed, and to condole with the sorrowing family. The amiable qualities of the deceased had endeared her to thousands of people. The funeral exercises will be held at 2 p.m. on Sunday, the 24th inst., at the family residence, northwest corner of Macy and Lyon streets, and at 2:20 at the Plaza Church, and the remains will be laid to rest in the Catholic Cemetery.

The Looloos cut out the thought also, for in that fatal fifth they succeeded in picking up no less than seven large runs off Pitcher Kane and his fellow-bunglers, and then added one more later on when the returns had been canvassed. Meanwhile, the 2000 fans who howled themselves hoarse at the voicanic eruption called for more and more, while your poor Uncle Harris sat under Morley's dinky sunshade, feverishly endeavoring to score in his own little book the runs his hired men failed to get.

It was just another case of the Looloos taking what they needed and charging the price to almost anyons.

The game started out like the one on Thursday, for the Has Beens made two runs in the first inning. Rube Waddell, who is probably the best all-around ball player in the State, went in to pitch for the Looloos, and the visitors went at him on the run. McNichols, the first man up, knocked a bouncer at Rube and it bounded up over his head. McHale filed to Householder and then Nordyke slammed as fierce one to right field. Shugart knocked a scratch to Rube and was assisted out, McNichols and Nordyke advancing. Both scored on Leahy's hard drive over Toman.

This was all the Has Beens could do in the way of runs throughout the game. Rube played with them after that until the fift, when McNichols made a single. Holly got a double in

Rube Waddell had a lady love in the

The old fans sat up and blinked to see what the league's star pitcher can do when he's feeling good.

First of all, Reuben is a lover—oh, a squire of dames if you please. It is just for a girl that Rube is fanning out the Friscos instead of playing in one of the big eastern league. He couldn't tear himself away when the season opened.

Rube's pitching varies in proportion to the state of the lady's temper. One day the course of true love did not run smooth, and the worst batter in the league hit him all over the field. The diamond might as well have been a

Yesterday she smiled and Rueben pranced out with an exultant heart.

there, however, for Shugart made his second strike-out in the game, and Leahy fouled to Anderson.

The spectators were badly scared in the early part of the game, for Kene pitched great ball for four innings, and no runs were in sight for the Looiose. In the fifth, however, they fell on Kane as if they were houses, and he went to pieces. The slaughter was awful, and when Kane fell down the grand stand and bleachers let loose thous ands of glad cries and yells, rising to the occasion with a noise that was heard for blocks. The excitement was due, for seven runs resulted from three singles, a double, a pass, a soak-in-the-back, and three stupid Has Been blunders.

Bill Hanlon was first given his base on balls. Waddell then hit to left, advancing Bill, and Toman bunted to Shugart, who shot the ball to first. It looked from the stand as if Toman was out easily, but it was said that Nordyke's foot was off the bag. At all events O'Connell called Jimmie safe.

With three on bases Hannivan hit to Holly, forcing Waddell at third, but scoring Hanlon. Single then bounced one to McNichols, and when he tried to touch Hannivan running to second on the line, the ball dropped from his hand, Toman going to third.

With these three on bases, Householder was on second. The fans howled themselves hoarse at these transactions, but there were more coming.

nowied themselves hoarse at these transactions, but there were more coming.

Kane was so badly rattled that he soaked Reilly in the ribs. Gibbs flew to Glendon. Householder going to third after the catch. Reilly then stole second. Anderson bounced one to Shugart, but he made a wide throw to first on which Householder scored. Reilly started to steal third, and when the bail was thrown to Shugart he made another rotten bungle, and the ball rolled to the coacher's line near the base. Reilly kept on running toward the plate and scored, while Shugart stupidly held the ball in his hands. This didn't end it, either, for Anderson ran to second while Shugart was still in his trance. Hanlon then went to bat for his second time in the inning, and rapped out a double to the score-board corner, bringing in Anderson. Rube ended the hilarlousness with an easy grounder to Holly, who threw him ou.

HAVE AN INNING

At the hearing before the Board & Public Works yesterday on the several important franchise applications now pending, it developed that many fundamental questions relating Mons now pending, it developed that many fundamental questions relating to the granting of street car concessions are involved in the case now in the Federal Court. Because of a dispute regarding the construction to be placed on the Broughton franchise law it was deemed inadvisable to proceed, and at the request of the attorneys for the companies, action was postponed until the Friday succeeding the decision of Judge Weilborn in the celebrated case.

In seeking to prove that the Patific Electric Railway Company has no right to the so-called "freight franchises," the city and the attorneys for the Clark-Hook company have raised some new points, which will have an important bearing on the sale of future concessions. There is a doubt whether the Council has the right to amend the applications by substitutalso doubtful whether the Council can grant several independent and unconnected rights of way over the streets in one franchise.

For four blocks the franchise asked by Attorney Bidney J. Parsons laps the franchise which the Pacific Electric Railway Company asserts title to, and complications would immegiately ensure it to be an expected to the second franchise was advertised for sale. Parsons was not certain yesterday, that he could sevise another entrance into the center of the city, and the board decided that the only thing to do was to await the decision of the court. Broadway to Spring: Spring street, Pount street, which state the seventh street was present conduction to the company who desired to protest against the granting of a franchise in front of help in the street was present to seven a week to present them. Attorney William E. Dunn spoaced to represent the interests of the Huntington-Hellman syndicate, Attorney Frank Thomas by the Clark-Hook combination, and Attorney to the conduction of the stree

Olive streets, Attorney George L. Saunders made a long appeal to the board. He presented three long protests, numerously signed by property owners, who are convinced that a street car line would be a detriment to them. Four churches also signed that the noise of the cars will disturb their devotions.

Baunders made a forcible appeal to the Councilmen to leave at least one gateway open on the south. He declared that Olive street is the only one left that will admit of an entrance to the city from the southwest, and that it would be poor public policy to sell it to one of the existing companies for a mess of pottage, and thus close the door against all competition in the future. He declared that Los Angeles without doubt now has the finest street-car service in the petition in the future. He declared that Los Angeles without doubt now has the finest street-car service in the United States, and that the residents of Olive street do not see any necessity for another street car line.

The attorney also made the point that Olive street is the only thoroughfare by which a person can drive to town from the southwest without traveling along the street car tracks. He thought the City Fathers should not close up every street so that ladies would be afraid to drive to the city for fear of the cars. Churches, he declared, should be offsetered in the midst of the city and it would work a great hardship on the congregations he represented if they were compelled to move to new locations. The grinding noises made by the cars as they pass around the curves he described as very wearing on the nerves. For the 1500 feet on Olive street, which was not needed by either of the companies as an entrance to the city, he thought the city could secure a princely fortune in the future when the city had doubled or trebled in population.

Protests were also presented on Ruth avenue and on Sixth street, the property owners being convinced that a street car line will be a serious drawback to their holdings.

Attorney Dunn was given the floor to repeat the statement that his com-street car line will be a serious draw-back to their holdings.

Attorney Dunn was given the floor to repeat the statement that his company does not desire to construct a street car line on any street unless the property owners so desire. He said he was of the opinion that a majority of the frontage on Olive street wished the road built. If other outlets could be found on Rampart street and Ruth avenue his company was perfectly willing that a change should be made in the application.

The remarks of Attorney Parsons were listened to with much attention, as he refuses to state whom he is representing in the present instance. He saked that the franchise application of the Los Angeles Daily Journal make accounting of the overcharge in printing the delinquent tax list last year. The matter will probably come before the City Fathers in one form or another and considerable interest that we have a considerable interest attaches to the position that some mercounting of the overcharge in printing the delinquent tax list last year. on that part of the franchise lying south of Pico street. He said he was aware that his application lapped the franchise claimed by the Pacific Electric Railway Company for a few blocks in the center of the city, but that he supposed the city took the position that no such franchise was in existence.

Dunn, with a tinge of sarcasm, said that if Parsons was not in too great a hurry to build a road he would suggest that the whole question be deferred until after the decision in the "freight franchise" case.

Attorney Thomas stated that he wished to be heard on a number of points, but that it appeared to him useless to proceed until some additional light had been obtained on the fearful and wonderful "Broughton" law. He called the attention of the board to the fact that the Los Angeles Traction Company filed a petition for a franchise on Olive street several months ago, and that it has not been acted on. If the board was going to proceed he declared that he wished the board to consider that application first. The franchise mentioned covered Hope street from Sixteenth to Pico street and Olive from Pico to Eighth street. After a whispered consultation between Bowen and McLain, it was decided on motion of Allein to postpone action as requested. It is the belief of the attorneys that decision will be handed down some time in July. Some of the briefs have not yet been filed, and they are so voluminous that Judge Weliborn will require time to look them over.

ITEMS OF PUBLIC WORK.

ITEMS OF PUBLIC WORK. A franchise to cross Agricultural venue and Vermont avenue, Santa avenue and Vermont avenue, Banta Barbara and King streets is desired by the Los Angeles and Redondo Railway. Yesterday the board decided to make a favorable recommendation to the Council. The road runs over a private right of way and a railroad franchise is desired that will permit the company to cross streets along a reverse curve.

Favorable action was taken on the petition of the Chamber of Commerce that steps be taken to label all the street intersections in the business center. On motion of McLain the district was made to include Main, Spring, Broadway and Hill street from Temple to Ninth street with all intersecting streets.

It was decided to recommend the adoption of an ordinance of intention to widen Grand avenue five feet on each side between Seventh and Pico street. A majority petition was presented. The extra width is to be used for sidewalks.

POLE ON OLIVE HEIGHTS. POLE ON OLIVE HEIGHTS.

Wireless messages will be received in this city on Olive Heights. This question was decided yesterday, when the Board of Fublic Works decided to recommend that the pole for the receiving and sending apparatus be erected at the top of the Angels' Flight. According to the specifications the mast will be 160 feet long, ten feet being imbedded in cement to give the pole a substantial base. Guy wires will be run to convenient points in the neighborhood to make the pole absolutely solld. Little but a cross arm and the light instruments used in handling the messages will be supported by the pole.

light instruments used in handling the messages will be supported by the pole.

Already the station for the Pacific Wireless Telephone and Telegraph Company at Avalon is nearly completed. Today it is intended to make a thorough test of the instruments. Chief Electrician R. H. Marritt and General Manager A. L. New, accompanied by Gen. New's secretary, George F. Hayes, who was for some time connected with the Marconi system in the Mediterranean Sea, will go to Catalina this morning. A small boat in the bay will be used as one of the stations in making the test of the apparatus. If the test is satisfactory the construction force will proceed to San Pedro on Monday morning, where work will at once be commenced on the second station. The mast is now on the site, and as very little work is to be done on the station, very little time will elapse before the instruments, which are already at San Pedro, can be in-

Lynn Helm, Esq., the local represents Lynn Heim, Enq., the local representa-tive of the bond-buying houses. Ap-parently the companies will get most of the money, as it appears that they never absolutely refused to take the $2,000,600 securities.

In support of his claim Attorney

Helm argued yesterday that the offe of the companies had made possible the final sale of the bonds, and that his clients had never refused to take the securities, but had merely demanded additional time in which to secure the money. As the contract said that they should have a "reasonable time" in which to complete the purchase, the attorney believes that the city has no claim to any of the money. Furthermore, he declares that it would be very bad for the city to antagonise the parties who put up the money, as they are planning to purchase some of the bonds about to be offered on the market. City Attorney Mathews yesterday made known some additional facts regarding the bond purchase. It seems that the Trowbridge-Niver Company put up $10,000 of the $20,000 deposit and that Gay & Co. and the Commercial Investment Company each put up $500.0. G. A. Eider, treasurer of the Duluth concern, and Gay were the moving spirits, and one hour after the bonds were sold to Farson, Leach & Co. they had prepared to take the securities and so notified Attorney Mathews.

It is the belief of the Finance Committee that the companies should say whatever expenses were caused by their delay in completing the bond sale and these will be figured before a recommendation is made to the Council. A verbal agreement was made by the water company to pay the expenses of the city officials East but they later refused to abide by the understanding. of the companies had made possible the inal sale of the bonds, and that his

HERE'S A FISH STORY.

Boatman at Echo Park Lake Makes Good Catches, Carp and Black Bass Flipping into His Boat.

Flipping into Bis Boat.

Here's a fish story that has a backing of unusual strength, the support of daily witnesses of the events, and a willingness of the principals of the story to make affidavit to the truth of the details here given. Now what more could one ask?

Echo Lake, the beautiful expanse of water in the little-known but attractive Echo Park, located in the hills between Tempie street and the Hollywood line, and easily reached by either line, is literally alive with fish. And

Then she had him cited to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt in disobeying the court's injunction. She feels that Ward's purchase of the property is only a pretense, furnishing a subterfuge whereby the father-in-law may avoid the process of the court.

Ward's defense is that he is not a party to the action in which the injunction was issued, and that therefore it cannot run against him. He maintains his right to the water and thinks that Mrs. Johnson's remedy is by another injunction was issued, and that therefore it cannot run against him. He maintains his right to the water and thinks that Mrs. Johnson's remedy is by another injunction suit, not by contempt proceedings.

On the other hand, Mrs. Johnson asserts that Ward has lived with his father-in-law for years, and he could not but have been aware of the court's injunction, in the face of which he must have acted, even if he has purchased the land.

Mrs. Johnson says the hot summer is coming on, and she is without a drop of water for her famishing orchards and crops. Her attorneys are Charles L. Batcheller, Esg., and James Burdett, Esg., while Ward's interests are in the hands of C. M. Hansan, Esq., and W. J. Hunsaker, Esq., and whas leaded and crops. This feat has been witnessed by many persons, and is vouched for by the park employes and surrounding residents. In fact, the boatman says he stands ready to furnish an affidavit for the benefit of any doubting Thomases, or, better yet, give them a Missouri demonstration.

In a walk around the lake yesterday a Times reporter saw over two dosen fish throw themselves up out of the water. All afternoon there were many people fishing from the banks of the lake.

Work of Remodeling and Building to Be Commenced Monday-No Use for ons There-How Thousands Saw

SANTA ANA, May 23.—Newport seach today passed into the hands of sew owners, W. S. Collins of Riverside and C. L. Harson of Los Angeles, both receally from the Beaumont (Tex.) off fields, where they accumulated large fortunes. While the former owner of Newport Beach—the Newport Wharf and Lumber Company—has done a seach today passed into the hands of sew owners, W. S. Collins of Riverside and C. L. Harson of Los Angeles, both recently from the Beaumont (Tex.) off fields, where they accumulated large fortunes. While the former owner of Newport Beach—the Newport Whart and Lumber Compary—has done a great deal toward making it a popular resort for Orange county people, it was not specially in the resort business, and consequently put in only a very small portion of its time in building up the beach, having other large interests which required attention. The present transfer is looked upon here as a benefit for Santa Ana, for the reason that the new owners announce that they will at once begin improvements on an extensive scale.

The rece Methodist Church has elected W. A. Bear, E. C. F. Pacholke, W. S. Lee, F. J. Heil, was, S. Lee, F. J. Heil, was, Carley T. J. Heil was elected delegate to the Southern Callfornia conference, June 25. Henry Gruenwalt was received Sunday-school superintendent and trustee, to fill the only vacancy on that board.

Santa Ana Lodge, A. O. U. W., has elected E. B. Norman, P. W. M.; W. J. Scammon, W. M.; J. I. Halsell, Foreman, H. H. Hossler, O.; J. Titchenal, I. W.; W. H. Anderson, O. W.; George E. Freeman, Secretary; J. H. Moesser, F.; L. Goepper, F. K.

consist of Los Angeles, San Francisco and New York capitalists. The purchase includes all the holdings of the Newport Wharf and Lumber Company at the beach, consisting of 850 acres of United States patent land, stretched along the ocean three and a half miles, hotel, cottages, warehouses and other items. It is understood that the price, which is not stated, is between $60,000 and $90,000. Messrs. Collins & Hanson were in Santa Ana today closing the deal, and stated that they proing the deal, and stated that they pro-posed to make of Newport Beach one beach on a much larger scale. Teams will be there Monday morning, with a large force of men, to begin work on the improvements. A new gas and electric plant is to be put in, a water system developed, and a large pavilion, dancing hall, bath-house and bowling alleys built in time for early visitors to the coast this season. It is stated that as soon as the business of the beach can be scheduled, arrangements will be made to sell lots for building purposes, can be scheduled, arrangements will be made to sell lots for building purposes. That it is the intention of the new own-population at this resort is evidenced from the fact that they appropulation of the same to build up a refined, permanent population at this resort is evidenced from the fact that they appropried to the latter's health. ### Largest Store Substantiated, Our Claim to Being the Things that you are used to seeing daily do not appear the same after seeing them several times, yet when some enterprise grows steadily and quickly, you cannot fail to note its progress. There is not a man or woman in Los Angeles, or within a radius of several miles, who does not realize the magnitude of the "Hamburger" Store. It is the progressive methods of an up-to date mercantile organization that have made it so—until the name "Hamburger's" stands for the largest merchandising

Largest

Because it does the greatest volume of business—
Because it carries greatest aggregate amount of merchandise—
Because it occupies most floor space—
Because it mploys the greatest number of people—
Because it keeps perfect faith with its public—
Because it does a strictly cash business.
